Education is the premise for economic development, employment and prosperity. Hence, all governments invest immensely in their education and vocational training systems, and thus in the future of the younger generations. German service providers of the vocational education and training sector recognize this significant potential in the Arab World.

Therefore, iMOVE, an initiative of the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research, and the Ghorfa Arab-German Chamber of Commerce and Industry invite interested companies and vocational and further education and training institutions to the 3rd German-Arab Education and Vocational Training Forum from October 6th to 7th, 2011 at the Estrel Hotel Berlin. The conference will be held again under the auspices and in the presence of H.E. Prof. Dr. Annette Schavan, Federal Minister of Education and Research of the Federal Republic of Germany.

The 3rd German-Arab Education and Vocational Training Forum provides companies and institutions of the vocational education and training sector with an excellent platform to create and enhance professional business ties and to build fruitful cooperation. High-ranking speakers and representatives from the Arab World and Germany will present the latest trends in education and vocational training.
